changing attitudes. changing lives.

Since 1969, Special Olympics Connecticut (SOCT) has provided year-round sports training and athletic competition for children and adults with intellectual disabilities through local, regional and state programs. Each year, SOCT hosts over 50 tournaments and competitions in 21 different sports. The Eastern Region, encompassing Hartford, Tolland, Windham, Middlesex and New London counties, coordinates training and competition for over 36 local programs in 23 Olympic-type sports.

HARTFORD WOLF ★ PACK COMMUNITY FOUNDATION INC.

The Hartford Wolf Pack has been dedicated to giving back to their community since coming to Hartford in 1997. To date, the Hartford Wolf Pack Community Foundation has raised over a million dollars for charitable causes. The mission of the Foundation is to fund charitable and non-profit endeavors that offer support to inner-city youth, amateur sport, and well-being of Connecticut's children.
