Letter from Torch Run Directors

Greetings fellow Guardians of the Flame,

Welcome to the 2024 CT LETR Kickoff. We would like to thank everyone for their hard work and dedication during this past year. Eunice Kennedy Shriver once said, “At the heart of inclusion is the belief that every person deserves to be seen, heard, and valued.” It is through your departments outstanding efforts and funds raised that continues to allow our Special Olympics Connecticut Athletes and Unified Partners the ability to participate in year-round sports and health programming as well as raise awareness for people with intellectual disabilities. We are excited to see what 2024 brings for CTLETR and look forward to continuing to work with everyone.

The mission of the Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics Connecticut is to raise funds and awareness of the Special Olympics movement. Special Olympics is a program which reaffirms our beliefs that with hope and dedication, we can see achievement and self-worth realized by any individual. It is our belief that people with cognitive disabilities, by their involvement in Special Olympics, can show the community at large that there are no limits to human potential or the human spirit.

The Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics is the movement’s largest grass-roots fundraiser and public awareness vehicle in the world. In 2022, dedicated law enforcement volunteers raised $56 million + for Special Olympics programs around the world and collectively raised over $1 billion since the inception of the LETR. More than 134,306 law enforcement members, SO athletes, volunteers, and members of the military from 92 LETR programs globally contribute to LETR efforts annually as Guardians of the Flame®, ensuring the delivery of the Special Olympics Flame of Hope to competitions, and into state/provincial Games, and national/regional Games.

We encourage you not only to participate in the Law Enforcement Torch Run and its various fundraising events, but to also attend and/or participate in any of the Special Olympics Connecticut games throughout our state to see this in action. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or need assistance in the upcoming year.

Fact Sheet: Special Olympics Connecticut

Our Mission

The mission of Special Olympics is to provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy, and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.

Our Reach

- 6,850+ Athletes
- 5,769+ Unified Sports® Partners
- 1279+ Coaches
- 67 Local Programs
- 26 Sports Offered
- 50+ Competition

Included are 3,340 athletes and 3,931 Unified partners who participate in our Unified Sports® and Young Athletes programs in schools through our partnership with the CIAC.

What We Do

Special Olympics are sports and so much more. It is a movement that transforms lives by inspiring inclusion, understanding and respect for people of all abilities, both on the playing field and in our communities.

Sports & Health

A catalyst for social change, the power of sports can also transform lives. Through sport, the strengths and abilities of people with intellectual disabilities are recognized and appreciated while misperceptions are broken down, stereotypes are challenged, and attitudes are forever changed. In addition to creating societal change, sport provides opportunities for lifelong physical activity resulting in positive health outcomes. Recognizing sport as a gateway to health promotion is perhaps one of the most transformative discoveries since the movement's inception.

Youth Engagement

The Unified Schools Program is designed to promote Unified Sports, physical activity, and health. At its core, Unified Schools is not just about including students with disabilities but unifying all students and shifting the norm in schools - from adult-led programming to student-led mobilization and action; from sports as recreation to sports as a catalyst for social inclusion and attitude and behavioral change.

Inclusion & Athlete Leadership

Being offered the opportunity to live up to your fullest potential on and off the playing field is one of the greatest benefits of inclusion. Today individuals with intellectual disabilities serve on Boards of Directors, as coaches, officials and are employed by Special Olympics around the globe. In addition, many Special Olympics participants have sought and retained employment in the private sector.

Recruiting & Retention

Getting Your Department Involved

Set a Goal

The first step in a successful Torch Run effort is setting a fundraising goal for your agency. For new departments, that goal should be something ambitious but realistic. For departments that have been involved before, try to increase your revenue from the previous year. Whatever your goal is make sure you periodically inform everyone in your department concerning the progress of that goal, for example: "We have raised $2,500, almost halfway to our goal of $5,000."

Support of Administration

The second step is to make sure your agency's upper management is behind the Torch Run effort and everyone in your department knows the goal and can easily get involved. CTLETR Council and SOCT staff can help educate your department about SOCT's mission and how LETR can have a positive impact on your department, morale, and the entire community.

Delegate

You don't have to do everything alone! Form a committee to help organize events, recruit volunteers, and spread the word about SOCT and CTLETR. If your department is large, by forming a committee consisting of representatives from all areas of your agency, communication lines will be greatly improved to officers working different shifts. Effective lines of communication will increase merchandise sales and participation.

Consider separating your department's responsibility for the run and fundraising. Have one person in charge of the logistics of the run and one person in charge of fundraising (distributing T-shirts, collecting money, etc.). Delegating responsibility to committed officers within your agency will help your operation run smoothly. Determine your department's priorities and use your committee to see your needs are filled. This will also allow for the development of others to step up to leadership roles.

Competitions & Incentives

In addition to the incentives are offered at the state level, many departments have their own incentive and competition programs. Recognition goes a long way in saying "Thank you" for the effort and the help. Whatever you do, make sure all incentives or contests are advertised to the entire department well in advance. Some ideas include:

- Have a plaque made for the platoon or unit that raises the most money. Do the same for the individual that raises the most money.
- Let top fundraisers carry the torch during your run while the media is there. Get their names mentioned in the department newsletter!

Recruitment & Retention Awareness & Inclusion

Special Olympics and over 5 million of our athletes are leading the charge for full inclusion of people with Intellectual Disabilities (ID). The movement is rooted in the spirit of our founder, Eunice Kennedy Shriver, who took a rebellious stand against the injustices faced by people with Intellectual Disabilities in 1968. Today, the fight for inclusion is more relevant than ever. People of all ages, races, genders, cultures, backgrounds, and abilities continue to face discrimination, ignorance, and disparagement. Just as Eunice Kennedy Shriver did over 50 years ago, Special Olympics is setting a stake in the ground to create change and, this time, our athletes are leading the way.

Join the inclusion revolution and sign the inclusion pledge at www.JoinTheRevolution.org

Engagement Opportunities

- Participate in the Torch Run by running in your local leg or Final Leg
- Participate in current special events and fundraising for your area. Get a team together for your local golf tournament, Penguin Plunges, Over The Edge or other Special Olympics fundraising events
- Use the Torch Run as a leadership training tool. By giving officers the opportunity to organize and run Torch Run events, you give them a chance to develop or enhance their leadership and management skills.
- Invite athletes to speak at your department meetings. Through its Athlete Leadership Programs and Global Messenger initiative, Special Olympics trains athletes to be public speakers. Hearing an athlete speak will give officers a better understanding of Special Olympics.
- Bring officers to local Special Olympics Games to award medals and see the athletes compete. Close personal contact with the athletes during a competition is the best way to motivate officers to become more involved in Special Olympics.
- Encourage officers to become Unified Sports® Partners. Special Olympics Unified Sports brings together athletes with and without intellectual disabilities to train and compete on the same teams.
- Encourage officers to become coaches. Help Special Olympics athletes reach their potential through sports by teaching them the skills they need to compete and win.

Recruiting & Retention

5 Ways to Get Involved with Torch Run

1. Volunteer

There are State and local competitions held each year where Law Enforcement are always welcome to attend in their uniforms and hand out awards to the athletes –you are their heroes! Or, attend the Opening Ceremonies and help bring in the Flame of Hope. To find out more about our various competitions, visit www.soct.org and click on the “Calendar” tab.

2. Merchandise Sales

Torch Run shirts are $20 each and all money raised goes directly to Special Olympics Connecticut. Hang a poster in your department and provide your contact information so others can contact you to purchase official Torch Run merchandise.

3. Run

The 2024 Torch Run will be held Statewide from May 29 – 31, culminating with the Final Leg into Opening Ceremonies of the 2024 Summer Games. Contact Amy Zdanowski (amyz@soct.org) to get put in contact with a Leg near your department. Or just join us for the run into the Opening Ceremonies on May 31st @ Southern CT State University Jess Dow Field.

4. Take the Plunge, Go Over the Edge, Golf

SOCT hosts fundraising events year-round that LETR representatives are welcome to participate in. Whether you participate as an individual or get a team together, all the money that you raise will be counted towards your department’s overall fundraising totals. Visit www.soct.org/plunge for more details.

5. Host a Local Fundraiser

Engage with your community and raise funds for SOCT at the same time but hosting a local fundraiser that’s fun for everyone. Tip-a-Cops are a great way to get your community involved, and only require a small number of volunteers. All you need to do is find a local restaurant that is willing to host the event and we can help you out from there. It’s an easy way to show your support out in the community and it’s a fun event as well!

Fundraising

Fundraising 101

Our Mission

The mission of the Connecticut Law Enforcement Torch Run is to raise funds and awareness of the Special Olympics movement. Special Olympics is a program which reaffirms our beliefs that with hope and dedication, we can see achievement and self-worth realized by any individual. It is our belief that people with cognitive disabilities, by their involvement in Special Olympics, can show the community at large that there are no limits to human potential or the human spirit.

Connecticut Reach

- 6,850+ athletes and 5,769+ Unified Sports® partners are part of SOCT's year-round programming supported by 1,279+ coaches and 16,000+ volunteers.
- SOCT currently offers 26 sports ranging from curling and bocce to sailing and snowboarding.
- The birthplace of the Unified Sports® movement, over 289 Connecticut schools offer inclusive sports programming.

Where Does Your Money Go?

Money generated through fundraising efforts on behalf of the Law Enforcement Torch Run benefits all athletes in the state of Connecticut and the overall SOCT program. Over $0.83 of every dollar donated to SOCT directly supports program services impacting thousands of Special Olympics Connecticut athletes.

Why Raise Funds?

It is our goal to provide quality, year-round sports training and athletic competition to thousands of athletes with intellectual disabilities. While the core of Special Olympics Connecticut's programming remains our year-round sports training and competition we have grown to so much more.

- We deliver a real sports experience by providing year-round, high-quality training and competition in an inclusive culture that stresses athletic excellence, rewards determination, emphasizes health and celebrates personal achievement.
- SOCT works to sustain athlete health and the overall well-being of people with ID via programs that ensure ongoing access to quality, community-based healthcare services, highlighted by free health screenings at Special Olympics competitions, games and other venues.
- Through transformative education, SOCT works to equip young people and adult influencers, including educators, with effective tools and training to create sports, classroom and community actions that produce friendships and acceptance, driving positive attitudes and behavioral change.
- SOCT builds communities as we provide services and act as a convening power of disparate but vested stakeholders to drive positive attitudinal and behavioral change toward people with ID in communities worldwide, strengthening the very fabric of society along the way.

Turning in Funds

It is vital that you coordinate with your SOCT department liaison to turn in any funds you have raised in a timely fashion. Often the fastest way to submit funds is to mail a check to the SOCT office with a completed Torch Run Fundraising Receipt form.

Special Olympics Connecticut
Attn: Law Enforcement Torch Run
2666 State St, Suite 1
Hamden, CT 06517

Tax Exempt & Donation Receipts

As a non-profit organization, Special Olympics Connecticut is exempt from sales tax. A copy of the official IRS letter certifying Special Olympics Connect as a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation can be obtained by contacting your SOCT department liaison.

- Special Olympics Connecticut's Federal Tax ID Number is 23-7099756

All donors who make their donation online will automatically have a thank you receipt emailed to them for their records. All other donations made by check or credit card over $20 will have a receipt mailed to them within 2 weeks of being processed. In order for SOCT to provide a receipt for cash donations, please provide your SOCT department liaison with the name, address, and email address of the donor and the total donation amount. Thank you letter templates that serve as receipts are also available by contacting your SOCT department liaison.

In-Kind Donations

With any special event, it is always a goal to get items and services donated to reduce expenses. In-kind donations have represented as much as 52% of our program revenue and expenses and are critically important to the financial health of our organization. In order to properly record donors' investments and the true cost of delivering programs to our athletes, it is vital that we receive the fair market value of in-kind donation.

- You can request In-Kind forms from your SOCT department liaison, or simply have your donors provide you with documentation (invoice, email, etc.) that lists the item(s) donated and total fair market value.
- Turn in any forms or other documentation to your SOCT department liaison in a timely fashion.

Fundraising Signature LETR Events

LETR volunteers have mastered some tried and true fundraising events (listed below) that are the bread and butter of our fundraising. For more information on how to run an event visit www.soct.org/letr or contact your SOCT liaison. Many LETR departments host unique fundraisers not listed below. Be creative and contact your SOCT liaison if you have an idea you want to discuss.

Torch Run T-Shirt Sales

Anyone can purchase a Torch Run shirt – making t-shirt sales a great turn-key fundraiser for departments of any size. Start with selling shirts to Torch Runners (who are required to wear them during the run) and expand your sales to friends, family and public at community events and your LETR fundraisers.

Tip-a-Cop

LETR volunteers assist with waiting tables at a restaurant to earn “tips” from patrons. All tips collected by LETR volunteers are donated directly to SOCT. Tip-a-Cop frequently include raffles, entertainment and more. Some restaurants will offer to donate a portion of proceeds from sales towards your fundraising goal.

Cop-on-Top

LETR volunteers collect donations from customers and the general public as they are perched on the rooftop of a building. These personnel cannot come off the roof for a certain number of hours/days or until the fundraising goal has been reached. Buildings in areas with high foot traffic work best.

Coin Drive / Coin Drop / Dollar Drop

Position LETR volunteers at a busy intersection or highly trafficked area and collect change (and dollars!) from passers-by. SOCT will provide collection buckets and A-Frame street signs alerting the public to the event. Theme the event around a holiday and wear costumes or give out a thank you to donors.

Adopt-a-Mile / Adopt-a-Town

Officers contact local businesses and ask them to purchase an Adopt-A-Mile sign for $125 which will then be placed along the Torch Run route in their town. For $500 a business, organization or individual may “Adopt-a-Town” and receive 6 Adopt-A-Mile signs to place throughout the town along the run.

Fundraising

Tip-a-Cop

Overview

LETR volunteers assist with waiting tables at a restaurant to earn “tips” from patrons. All tips collected by LETR volunteers are donated directly to SOCT. Tip-a-Cop frequently include raffles, entertainment and more. Some restaurants will offer to donate a portion of proceeds from sales towards your fundraising goal. Restaurant staff and law enforcement volunteers explain “Tip-a-Cop” and ask customers to support the event by placing a special “tip” for SOCT in the envelope on their table.

LETR Department:

- Secure a location and date for your Tip-a-Cop event
- Recruit volunteers from within your department or agency to participate in the event. Approximately 6-12 officers is standard for one shift
- Contact your Public Information Officer in advance to ensure maximum media exposure
- Contact your SOCT department liaison with event details

Provided by SOCT:

Promotional Support:

- Distribute Press Release to local media outlets (copy provided upon request to department)
- Event listing on SOCT.org calendar and LETR Facebook page
- Posts on CTLETR social media channels
- While media outlets will be made aware of all of our fundraising events, please do not expect media coverage from major outlets (including PSAs, live interviews, etc.). LETR Departments are encouraged to reach out to local media outlets to supplement SOCT’s promotional efforts.

Contact your SOCT department liaison to secure the following event supplies:

- Table Top signage
- Flyers/Posters
- Aprons
- Collection envelopes
- Banners
- Merchandise for Sale (as available)

Tips & Tricks:

- Meet with the restaurant manager prior to the event to discuss details
- Make sure your event does not conflict with other major community events
- Encourage the volunteer “servers” to have their friends, families, and co-workers attend the event. A lot of fun from the event comes from having the officers serve their own families or the supervisors serve their subordinates.
- Ask your local restaurant to advertise the upcoming “Tip-a-Cop” event

Fundraising Cop-on-Top

Overview

LETR volunteers collect donations from customers and the general public as they are perched on the rooftop of a building. These personnel cannot come off the roof for a certain number of hours/days or until the fundraising goal has been reached.

LETR Department:

- Set a realistic fundraising goal and minimum time you will be on the roof
- Recruit volunteers from within your department or agency to participate in the event
- Determine the specific needs and supplies of your event, specifically if your volunteers will be staying on the roof overnight
- Contact your Public Information Officer in advance to ensure maximum media exposure
- Contact your SOCT department liaison with event details
