

Karol Brzozowski has been working at Special Olympics Connecticut for 11 years. She supports the Connecticut Association of Schools/Connecticut Interscholastic Athletic Conference (CAS/CIAC) Special Olympics Unified Sports® school-based programs. She initially worked on the federal grant and then moved to become the Administrative Assistant / Program Manager.

With the tremendous growth the program has experienced in the past 12 years, the position has required her to wear many different hats. Her responsibilities include coordinating two Youth Leadership Summits, the Michaels Cup recognition banquet and daily logistics for all tournaments, including CIAC, league and Interscholastic events. Karol has worked hand-in-hand with contacts at host sites, sponsors, coaches, athletic directors and vendors to organize tournaments throughout the state for 95% of Connecticut's high schools and numerous middle, elementary and Young Athletes programs.

Fun Facts:

Favorite sports memory: The SMILES on all the teammates' faces during a game and after the competition.

Sports hero: Arnold Palmer.

What does inclusion mean to you? We all know the meaning of inclusion. However to take it a step further, it is when a child is invited to a teammate's birthday party, prom or even for a movie and pizza. Now that is inclusion at its best.
