

Taryn Prozano joined Special Olympics Connecticut as Special Events Coordinator in August, 2019. In this role, Taryn focuses on planning, coordinating and executing multiple fundraising events annually.

Taryn graduated from Boston College with a bachelor's degree in Psychology. Committed to helping others, she spent her early career working as a Therapeutic Mentor at MA Mentor Network. From there, Taryn decided to pursue her passion for sports and earned a master's degree in Sports Business Management at Manhattanville College. Prior to joining Special Olympics Connecticut, Taryn worked at Norseland Inc. as a Marketing Supervisor, where she was responsible for planning and executing large-scale tradeshows and events as well as brand management for several core brands.

After relocating to the Hartford area in early 2019, Taryn sought to return to a more service-minded organization. Her desire to bring together her experience in marketing and sports with her passion to help others brought her to this role.

Fun Facts:

Favorite sports memory: Scoring the winning goal as a senior and captain of my high school Field Hockey team during the NY State Championship semifinal Field Hockey game.

Sports hero: Julie Foudy – former captain of the U.S. Women's National Soccer Team

What does inclusion mean to you? Embracing diversity and celebrating the differences that make each of us unique.