

RAISE $100 THIS WEEK

Be creative in your FUNdraising efforts! Here are a few ideas to get you started towards hitting your fundraising goal and supporting Special Olympics Connecticut athletes.

HOST A GAME NIGHT

A family-friendly version of the popular Vegas-style casino fundraising event that kids of all ages will enjoy! You can easily make it into a monthly event over the course of your fundraising

HOLD A BAKE SALE

Hold a bake sale at work so your co-workers will have treats for the weekend. Wrap your baked goods attractively so they could be given as gifts. Ask your boss if the company would be willing to match any funds raised to boost your totals.

SOCIAL MEDIA BLITZ

Choose a day with special meaning for you – a birthday, anniversary – and inundate your social media followers with photos and messages about your cause and links to your fundraising page.

PET SITTING

Ask for a donation to take care of a neighbor's pet while they are away. Put the money you earn towards your fundraising efforts! Your pet-sitting money will put you a step closer towards your fundraising goal!

YOU'VE BEEN FLOCKED!

Put flamingos on someone's lawn with a sign that says "You've been flocked" Add your cause, why you are raising money. $25 fee paid if you move the flock to another lawn or $50 if you want it removed by the person doing the fundraising
