

David Pellino joined Special Olympics Connecticut as Warehouse Manager in June 2014. In 2016, David accepted a position as Program Assistant in Sports and Local Programs Department.

David manages the warehouse and logistics and works with various vendors for all sporting events. David also assists other departments at Special Olympics. Prior to joining Special Olympics Connecticut, David worked for the New Haven Public Schools Board of Education.

Special Olympics is a family affair for David. His wife Melissa is a Local Coordinator for the Special Olympics New Haven Public Schools Program and all three of his children volunteer at Special Olympics events. David enjoys spending his weekends camping and cheering on his daughters at their dance competitions.

Fun Facts:

Favorite sports memory: The New York Mets win the World Series and the New York Giants win the Superbowl in 1986

Sports hero: Lawrence Taylor

What does inclusion mean to you? Making everyone feel accepted.